

Easter Eggs Worth Hunting For... Choclatique—The Fabergé of Chocolate!

Objects bearing the Fabergé name are the dream of collectors around the globe. Fabergé eggs first seen in 1885 are like a fairy tale of luxury and beauty. Tsar Alexander III of Russia commissioned Fabergé to design a special, one-of-a-kind Easter gift for his wife. On the outside it looked like a simple egg of white, enameled gold, but opened up it revealed a golden yolk. The yolk itself had a golden hen inside, which in turn had a tiny crown with a ruby hanging inside, reminiscent of the traditional Matryoshka nesting dolls.

Today, the chocolatier and “goldsmiths” at Choclatique are making beautiful 24-karat gold confections for their Spring assortments in the tradition of Fabergé himself. Each perfectly formed and molded chocolate is a precious piece of art in and of itself. The same care and attention that went into the making of each Fabergé egg goes into creating each and every piece of Choclatique Chocolate. Bite inside and discovers layers of wonderful chocolate, ganache, nuts and other delectable surprises.

Choclatique has two major advantages over a Fabergé Easter egg. You get to enjoy the flavor and texture of original, ultra-premium chocolates and fillings including Banana Crème, Chocolate Crème and Wild Berry Crème; and Choclatique costs considerably less than an original Fabergé ($18-$24 million each).

Spring is a beautiful assortment of luscious, stylized egg-shaped chocolates that will fulfill your bejeweled dreams. Each Choclatique piece of chocolate art is filled with rich flavors and wonderful textures. All of the delicious Spring chocolates are hand-decorated and enrobed in rich, bitter-sweet, yet fruity dark, creamery milk or snowy white chocolate couvertures and crowned with 24-karat gold. Spring comes in 3 perfect sizes:

8-pc. Spring Boutique

15-pc. Spring Collection

30-pc. Spring Indulgence

Available March through May, Spring is for chocolate lovers everywhere. The Choclatique artisans will hand-pack your selections and deliver to everyone on your list... no visits to the mall... no fuss... no muss, no stress. Each box is sealed for freshness and safety, tied with a beautiful seasonal choclatique ribbon and crowned with one of our Matisse-like illustration cards featuring the Sweet Words of Choclatique... Delight, Desire, Joy, Passion and Seduction.
